

COAST GUARD FOUNDATION ANNUAL REPORT 2011

★ DEDICATION ★

ROSS E. ROEDER

IMMEDIATE PAST CHAIRMAN OF THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES

FROM 2005 TO 2011, Ross E. Roeder led the Coast Guard Foundation Board of Directors with a sure hand, helping expand the organization's support to men and women of the Coast Guard.

Ross first became involved with the Coast Guard Foundation in 1989, when he regularly contributed to the Annual Fund. In 2002, Ross became a board member and served as chairman of the Pacific Area Awards Dinner in 2003.

In 2005, Ross became Chairman of the Board of the Coast Guard Foundation. In this role, Ross oversaw and directed many new initiatives, and strengthened the Foundation's partnerships and programs for the benefit of the men and women of the United States Coast Guard.

In 2007, Ross and the Executive Committee began a process to re-align the board of trustees to be a more efficient, fundraising-focused group that also serves as goodwill ambassadors for the Coast Guard across the country. Ross also led the Foundation through highly technical compliance issues for board governance, and established best practices for overall operational and organizational structure.

The Foundation strengthened its support for education under Ross' tenure, as we expanded scholarships for children of enlisted members and spouses so that all members of Coast Guard families have access to support for education opportunities.

The Evergreen Fund was rebranded to the Coast Guard Foundation Shipmate Fund, the method of allocation was revised and the Foundation established new efficiencies in the grants process. Support for the Coast Guard Academy resulted in a new, hi-tech computer lab, a new track and field complex and a partnership to build eight new state-of-the-art sailboats for the Coastal Sail Training Program.

In times of great need, the Coast Guard Foundation is there for the Coast Guard — this concept grew in Ross' time as chairman, through the establishment of three major giving programs: the Disaster Relief Fund; the Fallen Heroes Scholarship Fund; and the Family Disaster Relief Fund.

Throughout his tenure on the board and as board Chairman, Ross led by example. His personal generosity, through support of the annual fund, specific funds and projects, as well as events, improved the Foundation's ability to provide for Coast Guard men and women.

THE COAST GUARD FOUNDATION

INSPIRING LEADERSHIP, LEARNING AND A PROUD LEGACY OF SERVICE TO OUR NATION BY SUPPORTING THE MEN AND WOMEN OF THE UNITED STATES COAST GUARD AND THEIR FAMILIES.

THE COAST GUARD FOUNDATION supports many programs and projects through donations from individuals, corporations, grants and fundraising events. We provide college scholarships to dependents of enlisted personnel on active duty, who are retired, or serving in the reserves. The Foundation funds recreation and family-oriented facilities, and supports education and morale programs at bases and on ships around the nation.

In times of loss, we offer financial relief to Coast Guard families who lose their possessions in natural disasters. When Coast Guard families suffer the ultimate loss, losing a loved one in the line of duty, the Foundation provides scholarship and relief funds to support the families during their most trying times.

The Foundation supports academic, athletic and leadership excellence for cadets at the United States Coast Guard Academy. The Foundation supports the Coast Guard Auxiliary, the volunteer arm of the service, providing units with critical funding for boating safety and mission critical support.

MESSAGE FROM THE COMMANDANT

ADMIRAL ROBERT J. PAPP
COMMANDANT, UNITED STATES COAST GUARD

Dear Friends,

On behalf of our Coast Guard women and men and their families, thank you once again for your generosity. Each year you tirelessly work to support our shipmates and their families by contributing to life-changing scholarship programs and life-saving disaster relief funds.

From your humble beginnings in Stonington, Connecticut focused on supporting the Coast Guard Academy, your good works continue to expand and today reach every member of our Service. You have made so much possible for our Coast Guard family that we would otherwise not have. Your generosity is unending, inspiring and comforting.

Right now Coast Guardsmen are standing the watch around the U.S. and throughout the world as they perform our challenging maritime missions. They draw strength from knowing that there are people like you, whose passion for our Service always improves our lives, and in difficult times becomes our lifeline.

*Thanks to all our
CG Foundation
Shipmates!*

With Gratitude,

MESSAGE FROM FOUNDATION LEADERSHIP

ANNE BRENGLE AND ROBERT J. FLYNN

COAST GUARD FOUNDATION PRESIDENT AND BOARD CHAIRMAN

PROVIDING EDUCATION, SUPPORT AND RELIEF to those who wear the Coast Guard uniform is the Coast Guard Foundation's central mission. To do this effectively, we partner with you, our generous donors, to raise the funds needed to provide these programs and services.

In 2011, we strengthened our core support across the board, funding scholarship and grant programs, Shipmate Fund requests, academic and athletic programs at the Coast Guard Academy and emergency relief to those in need. We also expanded our area of support for the first time ever, offering education grants for the spouses of enlisted personnel, as well as a regional endowment fund in honor of our outgoing Chairman, Ross E. Roeder. Both of these efforts built on existing pillars of support that aim to further our reach in the Coast Guard Community.

In its first year, the Spouse Education Grant program was exceedingly popular. The Coast Guard Foundation awarded more than $17,000 to 77 spouses across 22 states. Some are taking long distance courses through certified universities online, others are attending colleges or technical schools and they range in age from 20 to 53 years old. A common thread in their life is the love and support of their spouses and the United States Coast Guard, and the desire to better themselves through education. What could be a better program to support than this? When you support the family, you support the Coast Guard member.

To thank our outgoing Board Chairman, Ross E. Roeder, for his many years of service to the Foundation, we established the first-ever named morale fund for enlisted Coast Guard members – the Ross E. Roeder Shipmate Endowment Fund. The fund will benefit morale and welfare projects for Coast Guard bases and units in Northern Michigan, a place near and dear to Ross' heart.

The long-standing partnership with the Coast Guard Academy Alumni Association, Coast Guard Academy Parents Association and the Coast Guard Academy was realized when the first two Leadership 44 sail training vessels were delivered and christened. We are proud of this collaborative effort that will bring a full fleet of state-of-the-art sailing vessels to the future officer corps.

In order to raise our profile higher, we relaunched our website—coastguardfoundation.org, with a greater focus on the people we serve, and a brighter light on our donors who so generously support us. This annual report also reflects that theme of people, and tells better stories about their involvement with the Foundation, and their motivation to support the Coast Guard.

In 2011, we established a new partnership with The Weather Channel, through a social media campaign to get fans on Facebook for its docu-series Coast Guard Alaska, a television show that covers the arduous deployment of Coast Guard personnel in Alaska. Together, The Weather Channel and the Coast Guard Foundation successfully accomplished getting 5,000 thumbs-up for the show, raising awareness of the challenges and dangers Coast Guard men and women face on a regular basis, and raised $5,000 for morale support in Alaska.

The simple fact is: our success would not be possible without you. Thank you for supporting our efforts in 2011, and thank you to those who continue to do so.

SUPPORT FOR COAST GUARD FAMILIES

One of the most challenging aspects of life in the Coast Guard is balancing responsibilities of family and duty. Because of these challenges, the Coast Guard Foundation supports families in various ways, including college scholarships for children of enlisted personnel and education grants for enlisted members and their spouses.

In 2011, the Foundation provided more than 780 enlisted men and women and their spouses with grants worth $220,000, helping them attain the dream of a college education. Last year alone, children of enlisted personnel were awarded 79 scholarships; representing a $200,000 investment in the future of Coast Guard children's lives. The scholarship program is made possible by generous contributions from individuals, corporations and foundations around the country who believe in the importance of higher education.

The Foundation maintains several named scholarships, including the Sobel Scholarship Program, named for the Foundation's first higher education champion, Coast Guard Reserve Rear Admiral Arnold I. Sobel, a founding officer of the Foundation who wanted to find a way to support the children of enlisted men and women serving in the Coast Guard. Two recent additions to the Foundation scholarship program are the Commander Ronald Cantin Scholarship and the Commander Daniel

J. Christovich Scholarship, both of which also benefit dependents of enlisted personnel. The Cantin scholarship was founded by the commander’s brother-in-law, Stephen Wilcox, who started the fund in honor of Commander Cantin’s distinguished Coast Guard career.

One of the most profound ways the Foundation supports Coast Guard children and spouses in education is through our Fallen Heroes Scholarship Fund. This scholarship benefits families of Coast Guard personnel who die in the line of duty. This is the first fund established for supporting the higher education needs of families whose loved one makes the ultimate sacrifice. The Fallen Heroes Scholarship Fund was established by John and Delinda Statts in memory of John’s parents, Captain Frederick Statts and his wife, Sara.

In addition to these programs, the Foundation also offers education grants to active duty enlisted personnel and their spouses. In 2001, Roy Vander Putten, a Foundation director and former enlisted member of the Coast Guard, created the Vander Putten Education Grants, which are renewable grants for up to four years to help enlisted Coast Guard members buy textbooks, school supplies, and other necessary materials for their education that aren’t covered by Coast Guard tuition assistance.

PROFILE: AUDREY GILL, FALLEN HEROES SCHOLARSHIP RECIPIENT

Audrey Gill is a recipient of the Fallen Heroes Scholarship. Audrey’s father, AM1 Michael Gill, was killed while flying a rescue mission in California. She has just finished her second year of college at the University of Georgia, in Lawrenceville.

She said her scholarship is “definitely helpful — college is expensive and it’s getting more expensive.” Audrey, who received a $20,000 scholarship in 2010 that will be disbursed over four years, was just three years old when her father died, so her memories of him have been mostly passed down from her mother, Donna. However, Audrey has letters from her dad that she reads often, as well as pictures and stories from her father’s friends to help keep his memory alive.

One of her most prized possessions is a wooden rocking horse that her father made “completely from scratch” as a Christmas gift for her. “My dad was a car person, a mechanic. He was always fixing everything around the house, but I didn’t get that gene,” Audrey joked. Audrey said she is honored to be the recipient of the award in her father’s memory. “It’s a really big honor that my dad served in the Coast Guard,” she said. “He’s my hero.”

Our event program is an important avenue for shining a light on the great work the men and women of the Coast Guard do on a daily basis. We host eight high-profile awards dinners held around the country, from Hawaii to New York City, that honor heroic efforts by Coast Guard personnel.

In addition to highlighting Coast Guard heroes and raising awareness for the Coast Guard's mission, our events serve as an important fundraising tool we use to help support the men and women of the Coast Guard. In a typical year, we host 4,000 guests and raise $3 million from our events program.

In 2011, we recognized heroism and professionalism from Coast Guard crews who risked their own lives to save others at our New Orleans, Seattle, Pacific Area, New York and St. Pete awards dinners. These honorees are ordinary individuals doing extraordinary things. Our event program recognizes their work as vital to our country's national security, and is only a small gesture of thanks to the brave men and women of the Coast Guard, who deserve our gratitude every day.

SHIPMATE FUND SUPPORTS COAST GUARD MEMBERS AND THEIR FAMILIES

The Coast Guard Foundation built a $15,000 basketball court at Station Thomas Point, Maryland so the crew and families stationed there would have a safe place to play and enjoy outdoor fitness activities.

Supporting margin-of-excellence programs that benefit the men and women on the front lines of the Coast Guard helps ensure these dedicated individuals have opportunities for education, health and wellness activities off duty, so they can excel on duty.

In cooperation with the Vice Commandant of the Coast Guard, the Foundation identifies a needs list to make our donations as effective as possible. These Shipmate Fund projects may be something as simple as a set of mountain bikes donated to a station in Hawaii, or something more technical like computer software for a cutter crew to learn critical foreign languages so they can better perform their duties.

One of the most common ways the Coast Guard Foundation supports active duty personnel is by purchasing fitness equipment for units, bases and stations around the country that is not included in the federal operating budget.

“The new equipment has impacted the crew in a positive way from the moment it was assembled.”

Whether it's a treadmill, a set of free weights, or a Bow Flex, these gifts from the Foundation help the men and women of the Coast Guard stay in tip-top shape while deployed. New fitness equipment also acts as a boost to a crew's morale. Often times the new gear will spur friendly competition among Coast Guard members, as was the case at Station Manistee, Michigan.

“The crew has already started using the treadmill in a unit running challenge. The crew has covered over eight hundred miles in the last two months. We may have to purchase another one if this enthusiasm continues,” the officer in charge wrote in a thank you letter to the Foundation.

A Coast Guard member at Station Manistee, Michigan puts some miles on the Foundation-provided treadmill.

Likewise, the Coast Guard Station in Salem, New Jersey was “in desperate need of some new fitness equipment,” according to the officer in charge there. Using the Coast Guard Foundation

Shipmate Fund grant, the unit purchased a Bowflex Revolution Home Gym and Dumbbell Set. “The new equipment has impacted the crew in a positive way from the moment it was assembled. The Bowflex Revolution Home Gym provides a great variety of workout options and is compact enough to fit into a small space,” the OIC wrote.

The crew at Sector Houston-Galveston get a lot of use out of the Bow Flex workout machine the Coast Guard Foundation purchased for them.

The Foundation funded a complete set of free weights for the Atlantic Strike Team unit based in New Jersey.

THE COAST GUARD FOUNDATION SUPPORTS THE 2011 COMMANDANT'S BALL

OUR MISSION IS TO SUPPORT Coast Guard members and their families. This support manifests itself in direct and indirect ways. We provide books and exercise equipment for cutter crews, or we endeavor on more ambitious projects, like constructing a playground for Coast Guard families to gather with their children in a safe, healthy environment.

But sometimes our support translates into something even more simple and basic — a night out on the town, to enjoy the company of your spouse, your colleagues and others in the Coast Guard community.

The Commandant's Ball is an official Coast Guard Morale Welfare and Recreation event, sponsored by Coast Guard Headquarters' MWR in Washington, D.C. each fall, for area Coast Guard to enjoy an evening celebrating and honoring their service. The Foundation helped 200 enlisted members to attend the Commandant's Ball at a reduced cost. Enlisted members paid just $15 per ticket to attend, and received free parking courtesy of the Foundation. Coast Guard Commandant Admiral Bob Papp was appreciative of the Foundation's support of the ball. "We cannot thank them enough," he said.

To make sure that there were no impediments to attending the ball, the Foundation also provided funding for onsite child care as MWR hired teachers from the Headquarters' Child Development Center to watch the children.

The Foundation also supported the Commandant's Ball by funding the cost of entertainment and commemorative coins for all guests to remember the evening. "We must never forget that our service as Coast Guardsmen is a shared sacrifice with our families and loved ones. Once in a while, we're able to provide you with a first-class evening like this to enjoy with your special someone," said Admiral Papp.

"We know that the sacrifices of our families are what enable us to accomplish our Coast Guard missions. These sacrifices are not something that we can repay them for: a missed birthday, anniversary or holiday," Admiral Papp said. "My wife, Linda, sometimes says, 'you owe me,' but she knows I cannot repay her. But we do know our wives, husbands, daughters, sons, significant others and loved ones understand, because they're proud of us. And they make us proud."

SUPPORTING THE FUTURE LEADERS OF THE COAST GUARD

Coast Guard Foundation President Anne B. Brengle and United States Coast Guard Academy Superintendent RADM Sandra Stosz present the Johnathan Briese Award to Cadet Geddy Miller for outstanding leadership during the summer training session.

Serving the future leaders of the Coast Guard is a key initiative for the Coast Guard Foundation. That's why we support the United States Coast Guard Academy annually to benefit academic enrichment, leadership development programs and athletics. The Academy is a top-tier college, and the Foundation's support allows it to maintain its competitive edge when recruiting students.

Most recently, the Foundation has funded leadership and ethics initiatives at the Academy, including partnering with other Academy stakeholders in an $8 million capital campaign to provide eight state-of-the-art sailboats, which are used for the coastal sail training program. This program, the Leadership 44 Campaign, is a unique and successful public-private partnership, which drew upon a mixture of corporate and individual giving. The Foundation has supported ethics and leadership courses at the Academy, providing funding for a professor who specializes in these subject matters.

SUPPORTING COAST GUARD FAMILIES IN TIMES OF NEED

In times of need, the Coast Guard Foundation acts as a lifeline to active duty personnel and their families. When a family is faced with the unthinkable loss of a loved one in the line of duty, the Foundation works hand-in-hand with the Coast Guard to help the family cope with the loss of their loved one and ensure their needs are covered.

Whether it's a care package, or paying for an airline ticket for a family member to attend her loved one's memorial service, what we provide is also an emotional safety net to those affected by these tragedies. Through these services, the Foundation is always focused on bettering the lives of those who serve in the Coast Guard and supporting their families.

THE COAST GUARD AVIATION COMMUNITY

The Coast Guard aviation community is incredibly tight knit. And when it suffers a loss, its members come together to support those left behind. The Coast Guard Aviation Association, also known as the Ancient Order of the Pterodactyl, is a nonprofit, all-volunteer group of current and former aviators dedicated to preserving the service's history, raising awareness and recognizing the heroics of aviators currently serving in the Coast Guard.

“The special bond emanates from our flying as a team... everyone has a position and duties, and it takes all of us to make the mission successful.”

Sadly, since 2008, the Coast Guard community has lost four aircrews in mission-related crashes. Each time, the Coast Guard Aviation Association has generously answered the call to support their fallen comrades by donating to the Coast Guard Foundation's Family Disaster Relief and Fallen Heroes Scholarship funds.

“Our bond certainly stems from our specialty, whether we're the commissioned aviators, or the enlisted aircrew who not only fly in the aircraft, but, maintain and fix them,” according to CDR Benjamin Stoppe, a retired Coast Guard aviator and Treasurer of the Coast Guard Aviation Association. “Thus, the special bond emanates from our flying as a team in the aircraft — everyone has a position and duties, and it takes all of us to make the mission successful.” This spirit of cooperation also applies to how the Coast Guard Aviation Association and the Coast Guard Foundation work. Both organizations share like-minded values and goals in helping improve the lives of those who wear the Coast Guard uniform and are proud to do so. Immediately following a tragedy, the Coast Guard Aviation Association's focus turns to the loved ones left behind. “Our immediate thoughts and actions are concern for the families of those lost or injured, as well as helping document the cause of the mishap or accident to prevent it from happening in the future,” Stoppe said.

The Family Disaster Relief Fund was established in September 2008 in response to a tragedy at Air Station Barbers Point, Hawaii, in which the Coast Guard lost four crewmembers in a helicopter accident. At the time, the Family Disaster Relief Fund provided emergency assistance to the families of this helicopter crew to attend memorial services in Hawaii immediately following the incident. We have continued to draw on this fund to support and comfort other families affected by these difficult, heart-wrenching situations. The Foundation wants to ensure that children of those who die in the line of duty have ample opportunity to fulfill their dreams of attending college. All children of Coast Guard members who gave their lives in service of their country are eligible for the Fallen Heroes Scholarship Fund once they reach college age.

GIFTS FOR THE COAST GUARD AUXILIARY

The Coast Guard Foundation partners with the United States Coast Guard Auxiliary Association to benefit local flotillas throughout the country. The funds go to pay for boat safety seminars, vessel inspection and marine environmental protection efforts. The Auxiliary is a group of dedicated volunteers who are committed to boating safety and maritime education, who volunteer more than two million hours of their time annually in these efforts.

COMBINED FEDERAL CAMPAIGN

The Coast Guard Foundation participates in the Combined Federal Campaign (CFC number 10514) and dedicates 100% of the funds raised through this appeal to the Coast Guard Foundation Shipmate Fund. Special thanks and appreciation to the hundreds of individuals who contribute to the Foundation through this effort; your generosity directly impacts Coast Guard members and their families stationed around the country.
